

PETER MEDHURST'S

MUSICAL ODYSSEYS

TOURS EXPLORING MUSIC AND THE ARTS

JS BACH IN WEIMAR & LEIPZIG WITH PETER MEDHURST & THOMAS ABBOTT

7 days from £2,989 • Departing 18 March 2020

Bach's statue outside St Thomas' Church, Leipzig

PETER MEDHURST is well-known in the world of the arts as a singer, pianist, scholar and lecturer, who in addition to his appearances on the concert platform and in the lecture hall, sets aside time to devise and lead tours abroad for small groups of art and music connoisseurs. His particular interests are centred on the music, art and history of Vienna, Salzburg (with its strong Mozart link), Berlin, Halle (Handel's birthplace), Dresden, Venice, Madrid and Delft (with its Vermeer and 17th century Dutch School connections). He did his training at the Royal College of Music and at the Mozarteum in Salzburg as well as privately in London.

THOMAS ABBOTT graduated in Psychology and Art History at Carleton College, Minnesota, and studied at the Louvre School of Art History in Paris. 1987 he moved to Berlin leading tours in Germany, specialising, of course, in the German capital. While in Berlin, Thomas commenced and completed his graduate studies in the history of art and architecture, specialising in the art of the Italian and German Baroque.

JS BACH IN WEIMAR & LEIPZIG TOUR TO WEIMAR, KÖTHEN, EISENACH, MÜHLHAUSEN & LEIPZIG

WITH PETER MEDHURST & THOMAS ABBOTT

7 days from £2,989 • Departing 18 March 2020

Day 1

We make our own way to London Gatwick Airport for our direct scheduled Easyjet flight to Berlin. Speedy Boarding has been arranged in order to streamline the journey for everyone. On arrival at Berlin Schönefeld Airport, we are met by Peter Medhurst, our music lecturer, and Thomas Abbott, our art historian, and transfer by coach to Weimar. En route, we enjoy the first of our lunches together and then continue on to check in to the Grand Hotel Russischer Hof, a superb 4* hotel which opened its doors for the first time in 1805. The hotel is next to the theatre of Weimar and is situated in the historical centre of Weimar. We stay here for three nights. In the evening we have a private drinks reception followed by dinner at the hotel with wine included.

Day 2

It was at the Weimar Court that JS Bach spent the first third of his career (1708-18) and our lecture this morning introduces the events of this important part of Bach's life. Afterwards, we go on a guided walking tour of Weimar, during which we visit the Herder Church – where Peter will play the organ – and then visit the Wittumspalais, the city residence of Duchess Anna Amalia, a great lover of music and a composer. A light lunch is included and followed in the afternoon with a visit to Franz Liszt's House in Marienstraße. The pianist-composer Liszt was a Bach enthusiast and not only performed Bach's keyboard pieces in his concerts, but made numerous transcriptions of Bach's music for the piano. Time permitting we will finish the day with a visit to the Herzogin Anna Amalia Bibliothek within the Rococo Hall, a UNESCO World Heritage since 1998. All of today's visits are on foot as they are within walking distance of the hotel. This evening is at leisure.

Day 3

Prior to his musical appointment at the Weimar Court, Bach spent his formative years in Eisenach, and held organist posts at nearby Mühlhausen and Arnstadt. These places are on our agenda today. So, after breakfast we make our way to Arnstadt for a brief visit to the church after which we travel by coach to Eisenach (where Bach was born in 1685) to visit the Bach Museum. There will be plenty of time to explore and enjoy this magnificent testament to Bach's life. We follow this with lunch at the Wartburg Castle restaurant at the Romantik Hotel. In the afternoon we make our way by coach to Mühlhausen for a walk around the old town and a visit to St Blasius (Bach's church) where Peter will play the organ. On our return to Weimar the evening will be at leisure.

The Bach Museum, Eisenach

Day 4

Today we leave Weimar for Leipzig and, subject to opening, we plan to visit the Heinrich Schütz Museum in Weissenfels (Schütz is regarded as the most important German composer before Bach). We then make our way to Naumburg. Following a guided tour of St Wenzel's Church in Naumburg, the resident organist will give a recital on the 52 stop organ built by Zacharias Hildebrand in 1746. Bach helped to design the instrument. After an included light lunch, we continue on foot to Naumburg Cathedral for a guided tour of this renowned landmark of the German late Romanesque. We then continue on to Leipzig and check in for a three night stay at the 5* Steigenberger Grand Hotel, which is just a moment's walk from St Nicholas' Church where Bach gave the premiere of his St John Passion. After checking in to the hotel there will be some free time to do a little exploring of the city. Before our included dinner this evening, we re-convene for a lecture on Bach and his Leipzig period (1723-50).

Day 5

After a morning lecture on Bach's Brandenburg Concertos, we travel by coach to Köthen and visit the Palace where Bach spent the middle period of his working life (1716-23) and where he wrote the concertos that we studied this morning. We then travel to Wörlitz and after an included lunch, we visit the famous palace and gardens. Wörlitz Palace, finished in 1773, was the residence of Duke Leopold and his wife Louise of Brandenburg-Schwedt, and was the first Neoclassical building in present-day Germany. We return to Leipzig, but with time permitting, we visit the Grassi Museum containing an excellent musical instrument collection. The evening is at leisure.

Organ console in Mühlhausen Church

Day 6

This morning's lecture examines some of the highlights of Bach's church cantatas. The rest of the day is spent in Leipzig. We start with a visit to the Bach Museum in Thomaskirchhof and take a tour of the adjacent St Thomas's Church where Bach spent the last 27 years of his life as director of the choir. We follow this with an included lunch and then go on a walk through Leipzig's historic centre, visiting the Mendelssohn House (Felix Mendelssohn was another Bach enthusiast, and in 1829 organised the first modern performance of the St Matthew Passion) and the Robert Schumann apartments (subject to opening). Schumann – along with Liszt – was a founder of the Bach-Gesellschaft in 1850, who furthered his fascination for Bach by performing and making arrangements of Bach's music. In the evening we enjoy a farewell dinner at the hotel.

Day 7

After checking out of the Steigenberger Grand Hotel, we travel back to Berlin for our flight home. En route we will travel to Halle to visit the museum and musical instrument collection dedicated to the life of Handel – JS Bach's exact contemporary. We then make our way to Halle Cathedral where GF Handel – and Bach's eldest son, Wilhelm Friedemann Bach – played the organ, and where Peter will give the last of his organ recitals. We also enjoy a final included lunch together, after which we continue to Schönefeld Airport in good time for our early evening flight back to London Gatwick.

All the while you are reading this brochure, two Nasa Voyager probes are whizzing through space and are at this moment way beyond the boundaries of our solar system. They have been on the go since 1977. To represent man's achievements in the field of music, the probes contain recordings of Johann Sebastian Bach's Mass in B Minor, one of his violin partitas, and the first prelude and fugue from his famous '48'. The biologist who suggested that Bach be a musical ambassador to alien life said that to have included the complete works of the composer "would just be boasting."

Our tour to Weimar and Leipzig celebrates the life and achievements of this greatest of Baroque composers. It does so by visiting the places and localities where Bach lived and worked, by exploring his music, and by listening to live organ recitals – some given in the very places where Bach himself performed.

Peter Medhurst attempts to unravel this most complex of musical enigmas to reveal a man whose music radiates humanity, vision, intelligence and love.

BOOKING CONDITIONS

It is important that you read the following conditions together with additional general information contained within the brochure for your holiday. In these Booking Conditions, “we”, “us” and “our” are Tailored Travel Limited.

1. HOLIDAY PAYMENT

When you book you must pay the appropriate deposit per person (this amount is shown on the booking form) together with all applicable insurance premiums – see clause 16. The balance of the price of the holiday is due for payment 8 weeks (unless otherwise stated) before departure date. We do not accept credit cards for payment of the balance. If the balance is not paid in time we reserve the right to treat your booking as cancelled by you and apply the cancellation charges set out in clause 3 below. For bookings made within 8 weeks of departure the full amount is due at the time of booking. If you book a holiday which does not include flights through one of our authorised travel agents all monies you pay to him for that holiday will be held on your behalf until a contract between us comes into existence. After that point all such monies will be held on our behalf. If you book an air holiday with us through one of our authorised travel agents, any monies you pay to your travel agent for that holiday will be held on our behalf until they are paid to us or refunded to you.

2. CONFIRMATION OF BOOKING

These booking conditions form the basis of your contract with us. Your contract comes into existence when we despatch our confirmation invoice and will be governed by English law and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales. We expect to confirm your booking within 10 days of receiving your booking form and deposit or full payment as applicable. You must check your confirmation invoice, tickets and all other documents you receive from us carefully as soon as you receive them. Please contact us immediately if any information on any document appears to be incorrect as it may not be possible to make changes later. We regret we cannot accept any liability if we are not notified of any inaccuracy in any document within 5 days of our sending it out.

3. HOLIDAY CANCELLATION BY YOU

If you have to cancel your holiday you must do so in writing. The cancellation charges you incur depend on when we receive this written notification and are as follows:

Receipt of notice	Cancellation Fee (Per Person)
More than 56 days before departure	Loss of deposit
Between 29 and 56 days before departure	50% of full deposit if greater
Between 8 and 28 days before departure	75% of full deposit if greater
7 days before departure or less	100%

In the event of a cancellation of a booking secured by a low deposit, we reserve the right to levy the full deposit amount.

Percentages refer to the total holiday price excluding any amendment charges and insurance premiums which are non-refundable.

If a room or cabin is booked for multiple occupancy, but, due to cancellation by one or more of the occupants before departure, it becomes occupied by a single passenger then a charge equivalent to any sole occupancy fee charged by our suppliers will be added to the above cancellation charges.

4. HOLIDAY ALTERATION BY YOU

Should you wish to make any changes to your holiday, please advise us as soon as possible in writing. We will endeavour to meet requests if we can. A change of holiday where you wish to travel earlier or later than originally booked, will be treated as a cancellation of the original booking and charges will be levied according to clause 3. NB Insurance premiums are not transferable from one person to another.

5. ALTERATIONS AND CANCELLATIONS BY US

Occasionally, we have to make changes to and correct errors in the brochure or booklets supplied and other details both before and after bookings have been confirmed and cancel confirmed bookings. Whilst we always endeavour to avoid changes and cancellations, we must reserve the right to do so. Most changes are minor. Occasionally, we have to make a significant change to your holiday. When we refer to a 'significant change' in these Booking Conditions, we mean a change of outward departure time of more than 12 hours, a change of departure point to one which is significantly more inconvenient for you, a change of country of destination, a change of accommodation to that of a lower category for the whole or the majority of your holiday. If we have to make a significant change or cancel, we will tell you as soon as possible. Subject to clauses 6 and 12 below, if there is time to do so before departure you will then be given the choice of accepting the changed arrangements or taking a suitable alternative holiday with us if available or receiving a full refund of all monies paid to us. Should the alternative holiday be more expensive than the original one, there will be no further cost to yourself. Should the alternative holiday be less expensive than the original one, we will refund the difference.

Please note, our liability for significant changes and cancellations is limited to offering you the above mentioned choices. Where our liability is limited, we regret we cannot pay any expenses, costs or losses you may incur as a result of any change or cancellation. No compensation is payable for minor changes or where we cancel or make a significant change before the date the balance of your holiday cost falls due. Minor changes do not entitle you to cancel or change to another holiday without paying our normal charges.

6. FORCE MAJEURE

We cannot accept liability or pay any compensation where the performance or prompt performance of our contractual obligations is prevented or affected by any event or circumstances beyond our control. Such events may include (but are not limited to) war or threat of war, riot, civil strife, terrorist activity, adverse weather conditions, natural or nuclear disaster, industrial dispute, government action, fire and similar events or circumstances outside our control.

7. PRICING POLICY

In limited circumstances the price of your confirmed holiday is subject to a surcharge as set out below. Surcharges can arise if there is an increase in the cost of fuel or other power sources for the carriage of passengers, an increase in tax, levy or other sum imposed by any government or regulatory authority/body (eg CAA, ATOL etc) or our costs increase as a result of currency exchange rate fluctuation. In the unlikely event that your holiday is surcharged you will be notified in writing not less than 30 days before departure. In any event we will absorb increases up to a total amount equivalent to 2% of the total holiday price which excludes insurance premiums and any amendment/cancellation charges. Only amounts in excess of this 2% will be surcharged. If this means paying more than 8% of the holiday price, excluding insurance premiums and any amendment charges, you will be entitled to cancel your holiday with a full refund of all money paid to us except for any premium paid to us for insurance and any amendment/cancellation charges already incurred. You will have 14 days to exercise your right to cancel from the issue date of the surcharge invoice. Should any surcharges be applied and shown on a final invoice any further increases would be borne by you. If there is a decrease in such costs of more than 2% of the holiday price, excluding insurance premiums and any amendment charges, then on your request in writing received by us not less than 30 days before departure you will be entitled to a price reduction corresponding to such decrease. We reserve the right to correct errors in both advertised and confirmed prices at any time. We will do so as soon as we become aware of the error.

8. PERSONAL LUGGAGE

Whilst every effort will be made by our contractors to ensure your luggage is kept safe throughout the duration of your holiday, customers are respectfully reminded that the ultimate responsibility for all personal luggage remains that of the individual customer.

9. LOSS OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

For those who have taken out the holiday insurance we offer, the holiday insurance company insists that you report any loss or theft to the local police within 24 hours. Keep a note of where you reported the loss or theft and obtain a written report from the local police, this will assist when your insurance company asks for evidence of loss or theft. On your return home contact the holiday insurance company for a claims form (See also clause 18). If you have not taken out the insurance we offer, please check your policy.

10. SPECIAL REQUESTS

Although we will endeavour to pass any reasonable requests on to the relevant supplier, we regret we cannot promise that any request will be complied with unless we have specifically confirmed this in writing. Confirmation that a special request has been noted or passed on to the supplier or the inclusion of the special request on your confirmation or any other document is not confirmation that the request will be met. Unless and until specifically confirmed, all special requests are subject to availability.

11. OUR BROCHURE DESCRIPTIONS

All descriptions of holidays are advertised by us in good faith and we take care over accuracy. As our brochures are produced many months in advance of your departure, there may be times when an advertised facility, excursion or entertainment is not available during your particular holiday. Travel arrangements are planned very carefully to give you the maximum value while operating under normal circumstances. It may be necessary, sometimes at short notice, to make changes to an itinerary. Such reasons as weather, traffic and road conditions can create changes to an itinerary. Regrettably coaches, trains, ships and aircraft do occasionally break down or certain facilities on board a coach, train, ship or aircraft may become faulty. Every effort will be made to repair breakdowns or faults as quickly as possible. In some instances it may be necessary to replace the vehicle or aircraft which cannot be repaired. We cannot accept any responsibility for delays caused by any form of breakdown. During your stay in a hotel you may have problems with certain aspects of maintenance, generally caused by wear and tear to such items as a shower unit, lock etc. Please be understanding of such matters and report them to the hotel reception in a firm but polite manner. Hot water supplies can be occasionally limited in hotels and we cannot exercise any control over this. You may find that bed linen is not as large as you have at home, and towels which may not always be supplied, can be rather small. Regrettably, the general standards of safety, hygiene, fire precautions etc. vary from country to country and can in some instances be lower than you are used to in the U.K. The monitoring and enforcement of such matters is governed by the authorities of the country and overseas supplier of the services concerned. Please note, the services which make up your holiday comply with the standards and requirements of the country in which those services are provided and not those of the U.K.

12. ARTISTS, CONCERTS, ENTERTAINMENTS AND RIDES

We cannot accept responsibility for the non-appearance of any artist or the cancellation / withdrawal / closure of any concert / event / entertainment / ride (e.g. at Oberammergau Passion Play) for whatever reason. Should any such situation arise the holiday arrangements will still proceed. We will not always be in a position to advise you in advance of any such cancellation etc. Such situations will not constitute a significant change to your holiday arrangements entitling you to cancel or change to another holiday without paying our normal charges and no compensation will be payable.

13. SUPPLIERS

Whenever you use the services provided by an independent supplier you will be subject to the conditions of that supplier. These conditions form part of the agreement between us and may limit or exclude the liability of the supplier and us to you, often in accordance with international conventions. Copies of these conditions and the International Conventions are available from our office on request and can be inspected at the office of the suppliers concerned. We regret we cannot exercise any control over industrial disputes, port disputes or any similar action outside our control.

14. TRAVEL DELAY

Due to circumstances completely beyond our control, a delay may arise to your sea crossing/turn crossing/rail/air departure. In the event of any delay to your rail/air departure, responsibility for any meals etc. rests with the ferry company, airline or rail operator. In the event of extended overnight delays, depending on circumstances, we will endeavour to provide hotel accommodation.

15. HEALTH REGULATIONS

We advise you to check with your Doctor or the Department of Health in good time before travelling whether vaccinations are required for your holidays. Information on your health abroad is available from your local main Post Office. For European holidays, you should also obtain a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) prior to departure.

16. HOLIDAY INSURANCE

1. It is compulsory that you take holiday insurance at the time of booking. Should you decide on an alternative policy, you must give us the name, address, policy number and details of the emergency medical and repatriation telephone number relating to the alternative arrangements either at the time of booking or within 14 days of confirmation. If you do not take out any holiday insurance or provide the required details in time, we reserve the right to refuse your booking and/or treat your booking as cancelled by you and apply the cancellation charges as set out in clause 3. It is your responsibility to ensure that the insurance cover you purchase is adequate for your particular needs. We do not check alternative policies. Please take your policy with you on holiday.

2. The travel insurance policy offered in the brochure will suit the Demands and Needs of an individual, or group (where applicable) who have no relevant pre-existing medical conditions and who wish to insure themselves against the financial impact of specified unforeseen circumstances/events relating to or occurring during the trip. Full details of these circumstances/events, levels of cover and terms and conditions can be found in the policy booklet.

IMPORTANT – you may already possess alternative insurance(s) for some or all of the features and benefits provided by this product; it is your responsibility to investigate this. We will not provide you with advice about the suitability of this product for your individual needs; we will however be happy to provide you with factual information to aid you in making your own informed buying decision. Tailored Travel Limited is an Appointed Representative of Wrightsure Services (Hampshire) Limited who are authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (their registration number is 311394) and which is permitted to advise on and arrange general insurance contracts. You can check these details online using the Financial Services Register (accessible from www.fca.org.uk) or by contacting the FCA Consumer Helpline on 0800 111 6768.

17. COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Should you have a complaint about any aspect of your holiday, you must notify the tour manager, coach driver or a representative of the company, together with the supplier of the services in question immediately so that the problem can be quickly resolved on the spot. If the matter cannot be put right on the spot, on your return from holiday, you must write to us within 28 days with full details. For all complaints and claims which do not involve personal injury, illness or death, we regret we cannot accept any liability if you fail to notify the complaint or claim entirely in accordance with this clause.

18. OUR LIABILITY (EVENTS CONNECTED WITH YOUR HOLIDAY PACKAGE)

1. We accept responsibility for ensuring that your holiday is supplied to you as described in the brochure and to a reasonable standard. We also accept responsibility for what our employees, agents, suppliers and subcontractors do or do not do (providing they were at the time carrying out work authorised by us) except where death, personal injury or illness results (dealt with separately below). This acceptance of responsibility is, however, subject to clauses 6 & 12 and the other terms of these Booking Conditions.

2. Subject to these Booking Conditions, we accept responsibility should you or any member of your party suffer death, personal injury or illness as a result of any failure to perform or improper performance of any part of our contract with you by any of our employees, agents, suppliers or subcontractors (providing they were at the time carrying out work authorised by us) except in the following situations. We will not be liable where any failure to perform or improper performance of the whole or any part of our contract was due to:

- (a) the act(s) and/or omission(s) of the person(s) affected or
- (b) those of a third party not connected with the provision of your holiday and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable or
- (c) an event which either ourselves or the supplier of the service(s) in question could not have foreseen or avoided even with all due care.

3. We limit the maximum amount we may have to pay you for any and all claims or parts of claims which do not involve personal injury, illness or death. Except where loss and/or damage to or of luggage or personal possessions is concerned or a lower limitation of liability applies to the claim, the maximum amount we will have to pay you for such non-personal injury claims if we are found liable to you on any basis is twice the price (excluding insurance premiums and amendment charges) paid by or on behalf of the person(s) affected in total.

4. Where we are found liable for loss of and/or damage to any luggage or personal possessions (including money), the maximum amount we will have to pay you is £60 per person affected as you are assumed to have taken out travel insurance which is adequate or your requirements.

5. It is a condition of the acceptance of liability set out in clauses 18(1) & 18(2) of these Booking Conditions that you notify us of any claim you or any member(s) of your party has in accordance with the procedure set out in clause 17, "COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE". Any person to whom any payment is made must also assign to ourselves or our insurers any rights they may have to pursue any third party in connection with the claim. You must also provide ourselves and our insurers with all assistance we may reasonably require.

6. Except where otherwise expressly stated in these booking conditions, where any claim or part of a claim concerns or is based on any travel arrangements (including the process of getting on or off the transport concerned) provided by any carrier or any stay in a hotel, the maximum we will have to pay you in respect of that claim or part of a claim if we are found liable to you on any basis is the maximum which would be payable by the carrier or hotel keeper concerned under the applicable international conventions (e.g. Warsaw convention as amended for international travel by air and/or for carriers with an operating licence granted by an E.U. country, the E.U. Regulation on air carrier liability for any travel by air) in that situation.

7. Please note, we cannot accept any liability for any damage, loss, expense or other sum(s) of any description which (a) on the basis of the information given to us by you concerning your booking prior to our accepting it, we could not have foreseen you would suffer or incur if we breached our contract with you or (b) did not result from any breach of contract or any other fault by ourselves or our employees or, where we are responsible for them, our suppliers. Additionally, we cannot accept liability for any business losses.

19. PASSENGERS WITH A DISABILITY

Please note, our holidays may not be suitable for people with certain disabilities or medical conditions. If you have a disability, coaches can be difficult to get on and off and some of our hotels do not offer ground/low floor accommodation or lifts/easy access. Should any member of your party suffer from any disability or medical condition which may affect their or other people's holidays you must provide full written details at the time you book the holiday including any specific requirements that person has. Additionally at the time you book the holiday you must provide written confirmation that all assistance the person concerned requires will be provided by other party members as outside assistance will not be available. In view of the nature of our holidays, we regret we must reserve the right to decline any booking whenever we feel unable to accommodate the needs of any particular client or where, in our opinion, the medical condition or disability of the client concerned is likely to have a significant adverse effect on other clients taking the same holiday. We further reserve the right to cancel any holiday and impose cancellation charges if we are not fully advised of any relevant disability or medical condition at the time the booking is made. This does not affect your statutory rights.

20. INDEMNITY

If your actions or those of any member of your party cause damage to the accommodation in which you are staying or to the vehicle, train, ship or aircraft in which you are travelling, or cause delay or diversion to any means of transportation, you agree to fully indemnify us against any claim (including legal costs of all concerned) made against us by or on behalf of the owners of such accommodation or the operator of such means of transportation or by any third party.

21. INFORMATION REFERRING TO OUR TOURS

We always endeavour to give precise, accurate information to telephone enquiries. However, we cannot accept liability for information given orally to customers unless it is confirmed by us in writing.

22. PASSPORTS, VISAS, ETC.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you and those for whom you are booking are in possession of valid passports and any appropriate visas. Be sure to check passport and visa requirements with the consulates of countries being travelled through well in advance. You are responsible for any charges, fines etc. that may be levied by authorities in the UK or overseas for non compliance with regulations in the area and any such amounts will be recharged to you. You will not be permitted to travel overseas without an appropriate passport and all applicable visas. UK passports should be valid for at least 3 months beyond your planned date of return to the UK.

23. FLIGHTS

We are not always in a position to confirm the airline, aircraft type and airport of departure or destination which will be used for your holiday at the time of booking. Where this information is provided at any time, any change will be treated as a "minor change" not entitling you to cancel or change to another holiday without paying our normal charges.

24. PERSONAL DETAILS

We may have to pass on certain details to a company or organisation (for example, the airline, hotel or credit card company) in order that your holiday or other service or product can be provided. We may be required to provide information by law as permitted by the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and/or the Data Protection Act 2018 or by a legal authority. When you make a booking or enter into a transaction this means you consent to our passing on such details in all such circumstances. We will also use the information you provide to send you details about our products and services now and in the future. We may also pass your details to third parties working on our behalf. If you do not want us to do this you must write to the Data Controller, at our head office address. We will not sell or pass your details to any individual or company which is not a subsidiary or parent of ours without your prior consent except in the circumstances shown above. You are entitled to see a copy of all the data we hold relating to you personally.

25. CONSISTENCY

In the event of any inconsistency between these Terms and Conditions and the additional general information in the brochure, these Terms and Conditions will apply in respect of the inconsistency.

26. YOUR FINANCIAL PROTECTION

1. The air holidays and flights in the brochure are ATOL protected, since we hold an Air Travel Organiser's Licence granted by the Civil Aviation Authority. Our ATOL number is ATOL 5605. In the unlikely event of our insolvency, the CAA will ensure that you are not stranded abroad and will arrange to refund any money you have paid for an advance booking. For further information, visit the ATOL website at www.atol.org.uk.
2. When you buy an ATOL protected flight inclusive holiday from us you will receive an ATOL Certificate. This lists what is financially protected, where you can get information on what this means for you and who to contact if things go wrong. We will provide you with the services listed on the ATOL Certificate. In some cases, where we are unable to do so for reasons of insolvency, an alternative ATOL holder may provide you with the services you have bought or a suitable alternative (at no extra cost to you). You agree to accept that in those circumstances the alternative ATOL holder will perform those obligations and you agree to pay any money outstanding to be paid by you under your contract to that alternative ATOL holder. However, you also agree that in some cases it will not be possible to appoint an alternative ATOL holder, in which case you will be entitled to make a claim under the ATOL scheme (or your credit card issuer where applicable).
3. If we are unable to provide the services listed in your ATOL Certificate (or a suitable alternative, through an alternative ATOL holder or otherwise) for reasons of insolvency, the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust may make a payment to (or confer a benefit on) you under the ATOL scheme. You agree that in return for such a payment or benefit you assign absolutely to these Trustees any claims which you have or may have arising out of or relating to the non-provision of the services, including any claim against us, the travel agent (or your credit card issuer where applicable). You also agree that any such claims may be re-assigned to another body, if that other body has paid sums you have claimed under the ATOL scheme.
4. Your non ATOL financial protection is covered by a separate trust account administered by independent chartered accountants.
