The Historic Houses & Heritage of Cumbria & the Lake District

5 days from £459  Departs 20th April 2017

Day 1
We depart from Havant and en route to our hotel we visit the National Trust’s Moseley Old Hall in Staffordshire. This atmospheric Elizabethan farmhouse conceals a priest’s hole and hiding places, in one of which Charles II hid after the Battle of Worcester in 1651. We continue to the 3* Damson Dene Hotel at Crosthwaite, for a four night stay on half board basis.

Day 2
Our Blue Badge guide meets us at our hotel and accompanies us throughout the day. A guided tour of Leighton Hall this morning introduces us to a superb collection of Gillow furniture and the historic home of the world renowned furniture making family. We continue on to Holker Hall for a guided tour of the home of Lord and Lady Cavendish, most of which was rebuilt by Paley and Austin with Crace interiors, after a disastrous fire in 1871.

Day 3
A guided tour at Levens Hall this morning explores this Elizabethan mansion built around a 13th century pele tower. The house offers fine panelling, plasterwork and period furniture, and the world famous Topiary gardens were laid out by Monsieur Beaumont in 1694 and remain largely unchanged to this day. We continue to Kendal, the southern gateway to the Lake District with our Blue Badge guide. Granted its market charter in 1189 and built largely of grey stone earning it the nickname of ‘the auld grey town’, Kendal was the home of Catherine Parr, the last of Henry VIII’s wives. We visit Abbot Hall Art Gallery, a jewel of a building situated on the banks of the River Kent and overlooked by the ruins of Kendal Castle. A guided tour on arrival introduces us to a fine collection, dating from the 18th century to contemporary work, including examples by many of Britain’s leading artists such as Ramsay, Lawrence, Ruskin, Turner, Nicholson, Schwitters, Spencer and Hepworth.

Day 4
This morning we have a guided tour of Dove Cottage at Grasmere, William Wordsworth’s home from 1799 to 1808. Here Wordsworth wrote much of his poetry, and his sister Dorothy kept her famous journals. We spend some time at leisure in Grasmere before continuing to the Dalemain Estate with our Blue Badge guide. The present owner’s family have lived at Dalemain since 1679 and have collected china, furniture and family portraits. Dalemain offers a fine mixture of medieval, Tudor and early Georgian architecture.

Day 5
After checking out of our hotel and en route home we visit the National Trust’s Biddulph Grange Garden in Staffordshire, one of Britain’s most exciting and unusual gardens with a series of connected ‘compartments’. Unique features at the garden include upside down trees, a formal Italian garden, Egyptian Court and a tranquil Chinese garden.
